about the exhibit

Visionaries is an open student art exhibit featuring original artwork of the youth from the North Platte Valley region. The exhibit is a great way for young artists to begin showing & selling their art professionally. The 38th Annual Visionaries student art exhibit will have a reception, FREE & open to everyone, on Sunday, April 6, 2024, from 2 - 4 p.m.

entry fees

$4.00 per entry, each student may submit up to 2 entries.
Entry fees are due at time of artwork delivery. Make checks payable to: West Nebraska Arts Center or WNAC. Entry fees are non-refundable.

eligibility

The Visionaries student art exhibit is open to all student artists, 6th through 12th grade, within 125 miles of Scottsbluff/Gering. Art students of private instructors & home schooled students are also eligible. Artwork & completed entry forms must be delivered to West Nebraska Arts Center on or before the deadline.

All unsold artwork must be picked up after the closing of the exhibit April 29, 2024 or make other arrangements in advance.

We will not accept wet or unfinished work.. All pieces must be ready for hanging when they arrive.

sales

WNAC offers artists 65% commission for artwork sold with WNAC receiving 35%. Artist payouts for commission & award money are mailed on the 15th of each month or the next business day. Please be sure to list a current & correct mailing address on the entry form.

divisions

Please be sure your artwork is submitted in the correct division, as it will be judged within the division indicated by the artist. The number of awards given in each division is left to the judge's discretion.

- division 1: Grades 6-8
- division 2: Grades 9-12
